

Rosa Parks

L/M
800-900

Name: _____ Date: _____

Rosa Parks

The United States of America was founded on the principles of freedom and equality, but it has a long history of discrimination against African-Americans.

J/K
600-700

Name: _____ Date: _____

Rosa Parks

Freedom and equality are human rights. In the 1950s, people stood up for the rights of African-Americans. One of these brave people was Rosa Parks.

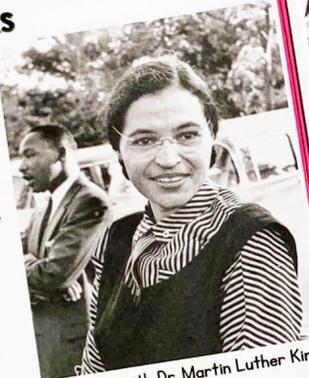

H/I
400-500

Name: Julie Bochese Date: 11/20

Rosa Parks

Freedom and equality are human rights. But some people did not always have these rights. In the 1950s, people stood up for the rights of African-Americans. One of these brave people was Rosa Parks.

African-Americans were once slaves. They had no freedom and no rights. Slavery ended in 1863, but African-Americans were still treated unfairly. Some laws kept "white" people and "colored" people separate. This was called segregation. Schools and other public places were segregated.

Rosa Parks with Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. in the background (1955).

Then the Civil Rights Movement began in Alabama. On December 1, 1955, Rosa Parks rode a city bus. She sat toward the back of the bus. She was in the first row of the "colored section". The bus picked up more riders. Soon, there were no more seats for white people. The driver stopped the bus. He told Parks and others to give up the seats.

Sign reserving the beach for "members of the white race group".

Parks refused. She was tired of being treated unfairly. Park refused to give up her seat. She was arrested. Her grandparent was in Alabama. She had seen plenty of discrimination. Her grandparent was in Alabama. She went to a segregated school. As an adult, Parks joined the NAACP. It worked for civil rights for African-Americans.

Name: _____ Date: _____

Rosa Parks

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

differentiated passages & activities

ABOUT LEXILE LEVELS

Common Core Kingdom, LLC is a certified Lexile® Partner. These texts are officially measured and approved by Lexile and MetaMetrics® to ensure appropriate rigor and differentiation for students.

The Lexile Framework® for Reading measures are scientific, quantitative text levels. When the Lexile of a text is measured, specific, measurable attributes of the text are considered, including, but not limited to, word frequency, sentence length, and text cohesion. These are difficult attributes for humans to evaluate, so a computer measures them.

Common Core State Standards uses Lexile level bands as one measure of text complexity. Text complexity ranges ensure students are college and career ready by the end of 12th grade. Lexile measures help educators scaffold and differentiate instruction as well as monitor reading growth.

Grade Band	Lexile® Bands Aligned to Common Core Expectations
K-1	N/A
2-3	420L-820L
4-5	740L-1010L
6-8	1185L-1385L

Keep in mind when using any leveled text that many students will need scaffolding and support to reach text at the high end of their grade band. According to Appendix A of the Common Core Standards, "It is important to recognize that scaffolding often is entirely appropriate. The expectation that scaffolding will occur with particularly challenging texts is built into the Standards' grade-by-grade text complexity expectations, for example. The general movement, however, should be toward decreasing scaffolding and increasing independence both within and across the text complexity bands defined in the Standards."

Table of Contents

Table of Contents

*This product includes a nonfiction guided reading passage on three differentiated levels. The passages are in the 2nd-5th Grade Common Core Text Complexity Band (the range for 2nd-5th grade is 420L-1010L).

1. Prereading Quotation Prompt
2. Differentiated Rosa Parks Article
3. Comprehension Questions
4. Key Events Foldable
5. Writing Prompts with Toppers

L/M
800-900

Name: _____ Date: _____

Rosa Parks

The United States of America was founded on freedom and equality, but it has taken time for...

...with Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. background (1955).

...became one of the leaders of the Civil Rights Movement. In 1955, she was strictly for African-Americans had...

J/K
600-700

Name: Julie Bochese Date: 11/20

Rosa Parks

Freedom and equality are human rights, but it took a long time for those rights to apply to all people who have fought for them.

Rosa Parks Jr. in the...

Then it began in Alabama. In 1955, Rosa Parks sat toward the back of the bus was in the "colored" section". She refused to give up her seat for white riders. She stopped other people from sitting there.

H/I
400-500

Freedom and equality are human rights. But some people did not always have these rights. In the 1950s, people stood up for the rights of African-Americans. One of these brave people was Rosa Parks.

African-Americans were once slaves. They had no freedom and no rights. Slavery ended in 1863, but African-Americans were still treated unfairly. Some laws kept "white" people and "colored" people separate. This was called segregation. Schools and other public places were segregated.

Sign reserving the beach for "members of the white race group".

Parks refused. She was tired of being treated this way in Alabama. She had seen plenty of discrimination. Her father had been arrested. She went to a segregated school. As an adult, Parks worked for the NAACP. It worked for civil rights for African-Americans.

Rosa Parks

Answer the following questions. Underline the text evidence in the color indicated. If there is not a crayon next to the question, you will need to infer the answer. You should still look for text evidence to help you infer.

1. Which event best completes the chain of events?

```

    graph LR
      A[Parks was arrested on a Montgomery bus] --> B[African-Americans boycotted the Montgomery buses]
      B --> C[?]
      C --> D[The boycott ended]

```

a Parks refused to give up her seat.
 b A court found segregation illegal.
 c The bus system went out of business.
 d The NAACP was formed to fight discrimination.

2. Why was Rosa Parks arrested?

a She threatened to start a boycott of the bus system.
 b She escaped from slavery when it was still legal.
 c She sat in the front of the bus instead of the back.
 d She wouldn't give up her bus seat to a white person.

3. Based on the text, which is the best definition of discrimination?

a Unfair treatment
 b Walking to work or school
 c Standing up for what is right
 d Being arrested

4. What is the relationship between paragraphs 6 and 7?

a Compare and contrast b Cause and effect
 c Problem and solution
 d Past and present

5. How does the author feel about the topic? Do you agree or disagree? Explain why or why not.

The author admires Rosa Parks. I know this because the text explains how she helped fight for civil rights. She was brave and heroic by working to change unfair laws.

©Julie Bochese

Date: _____

LEADER

ACTIVIST

Rosa Parks

Name: _____

COURAGEOUS

RISK-TAKER

Name: _____ Date: _____

Rosa Parks

Lined writing area for the first worksheet.

Rosa Parks
Summarize how Rosa Parks was a leader in the Civil Rights Movement. Explain why it is important to learn about her.

Lined writing area for the second worksheet, with a purple pencil resting on it.

Rosa Parks

Freedom and equality are human rights, but it has taken time for those rights to apply to certain people. Many brave people have fought for equal rights for different groups of people. During the Civil Rights Movement of the 1950s, Rosa Parks stood up for equal rights for Black people.

Until 1863, many Black people were enslaved in America. They had no freedom and no rights. After slavery ended, they were still treated unfairly. In the South, laws kept people segregated. That means Black people and white people were separated. The laws applied to schools, restaurants, and other public places. Even the Supreme Court ruled that segregation was legal.

Rosa Parks with Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. in the background (1955).

Sign reserving the beach for "members of the white race group".

Montgomery, Alabama was a key location for the Civil Rights Movement. Segregation laws were strict there. On public buses, Black people had to board through the front door to pay the driver. Then, they got off and got on the bus through the back door. They sat in a segregated section in the back of the bus.

On December 1, 1955, Rosa Parks rode a Montgomery bus home from work. She sat in the first row of the section Black people were expected to sit in at the back of the bus. The bus picked up more passengers. Soon, the front of the bus was full and white people were standing in the aisle. The bus driver stopped the bus. He altered the section where Black people could sit by one row. Parks and the others sitting in her row would have to move back or stand.

Parks refused to give up her seat. She wasn't too tired to stand. She was just tired of being treated unfairly. Having grown up in Alabama, Parks was familiar with discrimination. Her grandparents had been enslaved people. She attended a segregated school. As an adult, Parks became active in working for civil rights. She joined the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP). She was secretary to its president.

Name: _____ Date: _____

On that December day, Parks told the bus driver, "I don't think I should have to stand up." The police arrested Parks. She was released on bail that night, but her arrest began an important chain of events.

Leaders of the Montgomery NAACP organized a boycott. They asked Black people to stay off city buses on the day of Parks' court trial. Across the city, hundreds of Black people walked to school and work. Others stayed home in protest. Meanwhile, the judge found Parks guilty of breaking the law. She was fined $10.

Booking of Rosa Parks.

Encouraged, community leaders decided to extend the boycott. They chose Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. to lead their efforts. Under his peaceful leadership, the Montgomery boycott lasted just over a year. During that time, about 40,000 Black Americans walked to work or school. The city bus system suffered, yet the laws did not change right away. Some people in Montgomery fought back against the protest with violence. Churches that Black people attended were burned. Dr. King's house was attacked.

Finally, Parks' lawyer got a court to rule that segregation laws were illegal. On December 20, 1956, Montgomery desegregated its buses. The boycott ended. Rosa Parks' actions had started one of the most successful protests against discrimination.

Rosa Parks on a Montgomery bus on December 21, 1956, the day Montgomery's public transportation system was legally integrated.

Parks in 1978.

Terms of Use

How Can I Use This Resource?

Thank you for trusting MagiCore. Our mission is to create resources that support teachers and promote student success. Please note that this resource is licensed for use by a single teacher in a classroom setting. If you need to use this resource with more than one teacher and/or across multiple classrooms, additional licenses are available at a discount. You can purchase additional licenses by visiting your TPT "Purchases" page and then selecting "Download Additional Licenses" or by contacting me at julie@magicorelearning.com.

Good to Go

Not O.K.

- Use this resource personally or with your own children.
  - Use this resource in your own classroom with your students.
  - Provide this resource to your students to use at your instruction.
  - Print and/or copy for use in your own classroom.
  - Provide printed pages to a substitute teacher with the sole purpose of instructing your students.
  - Share with your students via a secure document portal or electronic learning platform that requires individual user verification and limits access to only the students in your own classroom (e.g. Google Classroom).
  - Review this resource with others with the sole purpose of recommending it to others for purchase, provided you share one of the links below:
- Share with others to use personally.
  - Share with others to use in another classroom.
  - Print or copy any page(s) and distribute them to other teachers or other classrooms.
  - Publish or host online in a manner where any of the material is accessible to anyone who is not a student in your own classroom, including but not limited to personal, classroom, or district websites that are accessible to the general public.
  - Use this resource commercially (e.g. Outschool).
  - Publish, sell, or otherwise distribute this product to anyone in manner inconsistent with these terms of use.

<https://magicorelearning.com/>

<https://www.teacherspayteachers.com/Store/Magicore>

© Copyright 2013, 2018. All rights reserved. The unlicensed reproduction or distribution of this product is strictly prohibited. Permission is granted to the original purchaser or licensee to make copies to use with students and/or to assign to students digitally providing it is only available to students assigned directly to the purchaser. Placing this product in any manner that makes it accessible to the general public is strictly forbidden. Commercial use, including but not limited to online or in person classes, is prohibited. Contact julie@magicorelearning.com for commercial licensing information. Sharing without permission or hosting online in a public manner is a violation of the Digital Millennium Copyright Act (DMCA). These terms may be updated at any time. You can see the most up to date Terms of Use at <https://magicorelearning.com/terms-of-use>.

CREDITS

South Africa The Good News

<https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/2.0>

