ABOUT LEXILE LEVELS

MagiCore Learning, LLC is a certified Lexile® Partner. Indicated texts are officially measured and approved by Lexile and MetaMetrics® to ensure appropriate rigor and differentiation for students.

The Lexile Framework® for Reading measures are scientific, quantitative text levels. When the Lexile of a text is measured, specific, measurable attributes of the text are considered, including, but not limited to, word frequency, sentence length, and text cohesion. These are difficult attributes for humans to evaluate, so a computer measures them.

Common Core State Standards uses Lexile level bands as one measure of text complexity. Text complexity ranges ensure students are college and career ready by the end of 12th grade. Lexile measures help educators scaffold and differentiate instruction as well as monitor reading growth.

Grade Band	Lexile® Bands Aligned to Common Core Expectations
K-1	N/A
2-3	420L-820L
4-5	740L-1010L
6-8	925L-1185L

Keep in mind when using any leveled text that many students will need scaffolding and support to reach text at the high end of their grade band. According to Appendix A of the Common Core Standards, “It is important to recognize that scaffolding often is entirely appropriate. The expectation that scaffolding will occur with particularly challenging texts is built into the Standards’ grade-by-grade text complexity expectations, for example. The general movement, however, should be toward decreasing scaffolding and increasing independence both within and across the text complexity bands defined in the Standards.”

Let's Read!

Read the poem Winter Sport by Anonymous.

Down, down the hill how swift I go!
Over the ice, and over the snow;
A horse or cart I do not fear.
For past them both my sled I steer.

Hurra! my boy! I'm going down,
While you toil up; but never frown;
The far hill-top you soon will gain,
And then, with all your might and main,

You'll dash by me; while, full of glee,
I'll up again to dash by thee!
So on we glide—O, life of joy;
What pleasure has the glad school-boy!

Now, listen to the audio recording.

Excerpt from My Father's Dragon by Ruth Stiles Gannett

When everything was packed my father and the cat went down to the docks to the ship. A night watchman was on duty, so while the cat made loud queer noises to distract his attention, my father ran over the gang-plank onto the ship. He went down into the hold and hid among some bags of wheat. The ship sailed early the next morning.

What does the illustration tell us about the cat that isn't mentioned in the text?

The Family Road Trip

Julia and Pedro quickly sprang up from their beds with excitement. It seemed like such a long week as they waited for Saturday to arrive. "Grand Canyon, here we come!" shouted Pedro as he eagerly rushed downstairs for breakfast. It was a Valdez family tradition to take a road trip during the first weekend of spring. This year would surely be no exception.

"Now, which trail should we visit first?" asked Julia. "I say we start things off at the South Rim Trail."

"I don't think so!" replied Pedro. "Grandview Trails should be first on the list for sure. It has the best view, lots of huge rocks, and the freshest air."

"Settle down and enjoy your pancakes," said Mom. "Besides, everyone knows that Hermit Trail is the best place for hiking."

Landing of the Pilgrim Fathers (Excerpt)
by Felicia Dorothea Hemans

THE breaking waves dashed high
On a stern and rock-bound coast,
And the woods against a stormy sky
Their giant branches tossed;

And the heavy night hung dark,
The hills and waters o'er,
When a band of exiles moored their bark
On the wild New England shore.

Not as the conqueror comes,
They, the true-hearted came;
Not with the roll of the stirring drums,
And the trumpet that sings of fame;

Not as the flying come,
In silence and in fear;
They shook the depths of the desert gloom
With their hymns of lofty cheer.

Amidst the storm they sang,
And the stars heard, and the sea;
And the sounding aisles of the dim woods rang
To the anthem of the free.

This poem was recorded in November 2005 by Grant Raymond Barrett.

SCENE 1: JOEY AND ZOE'S BEDROOM, NIGHT
(Joey and Zoe are twins, and they are having their friends Mandy and Jerome over for a birthday sleepover. They're all sitting in the twins' room as Joey and Zoe tell ghost stories.)

Zoe: ...the attic right above our heads.

Jerome: trembling There's a ghost in your attic?!

Mandy: Shh, Jerome... It might hear you!

Zoe: nodding seriously See, this house used to be where the old stationmaster lived, back when the railway lines ran through our yard...

Jerome: interrupting Did you hear that? I swear that noises are coming from upstairs.

(They stop to listen and hear thuds and bangs coming from the attic.)

Mandy: It's him! It's the ghost of the old stationmaster.

Zoe: He must know that you're telling his story. Mandy, let's settle until we hear more.

Jerome: Joey.

Joey: stationmaster because he had been sleepwalking. At night he would be sleeping in his bed, which was where the attic is now, and his mind was sleeping. He would wake up at his house. Sometimes he even end up all the way outside.

SCENE 1: OUTSIDE WILLA AND WILDY'S HUT IN THE WOODS, DUSK

(Willa and Wildy are witch sisters who live together in their hut in the woods. They are standing in front of two freshly dug graves, weeping.)

Willa: (sniffing) We are gathered here today to celebrate the lives of our beloved familiars, who have sadly been taken to the Otherworld.

Wildy: Demeter and Diana were more than just cats. They were our sisters, and they provided us with more magical support, guidance, and comfort over this last decade than anyone will ever know.

Willa: I wouldn't be the witch I am today without Demeter.

Wildy: Nor I without Diana.

Willa: Bound free into the misty lands of the Otherworld, oh sacred familiars.

Wildy: (lighting a candle) May the flame of the fire guide you into the next plane of existence. (The sisters bow their heads for a moment until the candle flickers out.)

Willa: (sighing) Well, now I suppose we must begin our search for our new familiars. Where do we start?

SCENE 2: THE VILLAGE SQUARE, MORNING

(A poster has been attached to the village bulletin board, announcing that the witches Willa and Wildy are searching for two new familiars. Gathered around the sign are Hattie the Horse, Horace the Hound, Renley the Rat, and Orla the Owl.)

I. HEAR the sledges with the bells --
Silver bells !

What a world of merriment their melody foretells !

How they tinkle, tinkle, tinkle,

In the icy air of night !

While the stars that oversprinkle

All the heavens, seem to twinkle

With a crystalline delight ;

Keeping time, time, time,

In a sort of Runic rhyme,

To the tintinnabulation that so musically wells

From the bells, bells, bells, bells,

Bells, bells, bells --

From the jingling and the tinkling of the bells.

II. Hear the mellow wedding bells

Golden bells!

What a world of happiness their harmony foretells!

Through the balmy air of night

How they ring out their delight !

From the molten-golden notes,

And all in tune,

What a liquid ditty floats

To the turtle-dove that listens, while she gloats

On the moon !

Oh, from out the sounding cells,

What a gush of euphony voluminously wells !

How it swells !

How it dwells

On the Future ! how it tells

Of the rapture that impels

To the swinging and the ringing

Of the bells, bells, bells,

Of the bells, bells, bells, bells,

Bells, bells, bells --

To the rhyming and the chiming of the bells !
