He also lost some elections. If he had quit, he would not have been elected President of the United States. Beyoncé Knowles and her group Girls Tyme lost a television talent contest. She did not give up her dream. The group stayed together and picked a new name. They kept making music and Destiny's Child has had many number one hit songs. Michael Jordan was turned down by the varsity basketball team when he was in high school. Jordan did not let that stop him. He worked hard to improve his skills. Later he was called "the greatest basketball player of all time."

How balls in autumn.
The prairie cornfields
Orange and tawny gold clusters
And I am called pumpkins.
On the last of October
When dusk is fallen
Children join hands
And circle round me
Singing ghost songs
And love to the harvest moon;
I am a jack-o'-lantern
With terrible teeth
And the children know
I am

4. The Poor Man and the Flask of Oil: A Folktale from India

There was once a poor man. He lived in a house next to a wealthy merchant who sold oil and honey. The merchant was a kind neighbor and one day he sent a flask of oil to the poor man. The poor man was delighted, and he put it carefully away on the top shelf.

One evening, as he was gazing at it, he said half aloud, "I wonder how much oil there is in that bottle. There is a large quantity. If I should sell it, I could buy five sheep. Every year I should have lambs, and before long I should own a flock. Then I should sell some of the sheep and be rich enough to marry a wife. We might have a son. And what a fine boy he would be! So tall, strong, and obedient! But if he should disobey me," and he raised the staff which he held in his hand, "I should punish him!"

And he swung the staff over his head and brought it heavily to the ground, knocking, as he did so, the flask off the shelf so that the oil ran over him from head to foot.
