

2nd Grade

Compare & Contrast

Giant Land Escape Room

PRINTABLE • GOOGLE • WEBSCAPE™

I can't let Jack venture into Giant Land by himself! He's just a simple shepherd and won't make it back. We may not succeed, but Jack's flock of sheep is counting on us. We're all they've got, and we will work together to bring them home! After each challenge, gather the straggling sheep from Jack's flock and return them to the village safely.

Let's Go!

Find the Giant Land!

Students won't realize they are practicing Compare & Contrast skills! They will be immersed in the storytelling and our original videos as they complete reading comprehension challenges.

Learn more!

4 Reading Challenges

Challenge #1

1. Read the story and answer the questions.
2. Use your answers to help Jack find the cave to Giant Land.
3. Collect any sheep you stumble across and return them safely to the village before helping Jack find Giant Land.

1 A Calabash of Poi

Pele was the Hawaiian goddess of fire. She dressed up like an old woman and went on a secret mission. She used a branch as a cane. She traveled deep into Hawaii and saw two houses. One was a huge house that showed a sign of wealth. The house had beautiful palms and banana plants. This gave it a pleasing look. Pele called from the door, "Aloha!"

"Aloha," a voice answered. It did not sound friendly. When no one came to welcome Pele she said, "I have walked a long way, and I am so hungry. Do you have a calabash of poi for me?" Surely, with such a fancy house this family could share some food with her.

"We have no poi," the chief said harshly. "And can't you see our evening meal is over?"

"Could you share a small piece of fish then?" Pele asked.

"No," the chief replied.

"At least some berries?" Pele asked.

The chief motioned to the land around the house. "Our berries will let you."

Old eyes! Pele's eyes saw perfectly. Fire blazed inside her. She saw the second house. It was only a small hut. The family sat outside peeling coconuts.

"I see your evening meal is finished," Pele said, "but I have a gift for you. Can you spare some food for me?"

1. How are the characters in "A Calabash of Poi" and "Sedge Hats for Jizo" similar?
 - a. There is a Hawaiian god in both stories.
 - b. There are unkind people in both stories.
 - c. There are fishermen in both stories.
 - d. There are people in both stories who are generous and kind.
2. How are the settings in "A Calabash of Poi" and "Sedge Hats for Jizo" different?
 - a. One story takes place at sea. The other story takes place on land.
 - b. One story takes place on a mountainside. The other story takes place in a restaurant.
 - c. One story takes place in Hawaii. The other story takes place in Japan.
 - d. One story takes place a long time ago. The other story takes place last year.
3. How are the endings of "A Calabash of Poi" and "Sedge Hats for Jizo" similar?
 - a. The characters in both stories learn from their mistakes.
 - b. The characters in both stories lose everything they have.
 - c. The characters in both stories decide to never be generous or kind again.
 - d. The characters in both stories are rewarded for being generous and kind to others.

Learn more!

4 Reading Challenges

Challenge #3

1. Read both stories and answer the questions.
2. Use your answers to help Jack find his flock of sheep.
3. Collect any sheep you stumble across and return them safely to the village by helping Jack block the cave to Gid.

1 Rhodopis: A Cinderella Story

A long time ago, a Greek girl named Rhodopis was kidnapped. She was bought as a servant by a kind old man. He spent most of his time sleeping and never saw how the other servants teased her. The others had straight black hair and deep brown eyes. Rhodopis had hair that was curly and golden, and her eyes were a bright green. The other girls made Rhodopis do all the chores while the old man slept.

Animals were Rhodopis's only friends. She would dance and sing for her animal friends when she wasn't too tired from all her work. The old man woke up one day to her singing and saw her dancing. He thought that she was amazing. He ordered her a pair of soft pink slippers for her to wear when she danced. This made the other servants very jealous of Rhodopis.

A decision was made that the king of Egypt would be having a ball. There would be singing. Of course, Rhodopis wanted to attend, but the other servants gave her no chance. She would never finish in time to go to the ball. The servants left in their raft, leaving Rhodopis on the banks of the Nile. She eventually got her rose slippers wet, so she had to leave them behind.

Find the Flock of Sheep

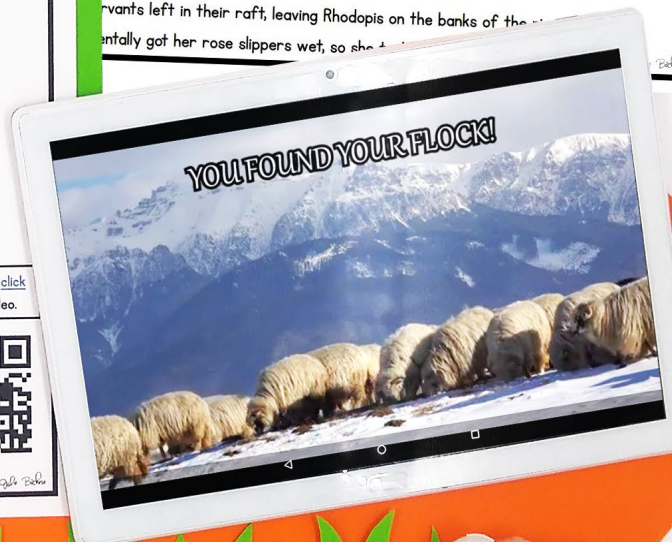

Enter your answers in the Shepherd's Decoder to see if you are ready to find the flock of sheep.

Scan the QR code or click here to view the video.

DO NOT go to the next page until you've answered the question on your brochure!

Learn more!

3 Versions

- Print
- Google Slides
- Webscape™ (Our most popular experience)

Learn more!

A Calabash

1 Pele was the Hawaiian goddess of fire. She dressed up like an old woman and went on a secret mission. She used a branch as a cane. She traveled deep into Hawaii and saw two houses. One was a huge house that showed a sign of wealth. The house had beautiful palms and banana plants. This gave it a pleasing look. Pele called from the door, "Aloha!"

"Aloha," a voice answered. It did not sound friendly. When no one came to welcome Pele she said, "I have walked a long way, and I am so hungry. Do you have a calabash of poi for me?" Surely, with such a fancy house this family could share some food with her.

"We have no poi," the chief said harshly. "And can't you see our evening meal is over?"

"Could you share a small piece of fish then?" Pele asked.

"No," the chief replied. "At least some berries?" Pele asked.

The chief motioned to the land around the house. "Our berries are all green, as you can see if your old eyes will let you."

Old eyes! Pele's eyes were like fire. "I see your evening meal is over. Can you spare some food?"

A Calabash of Poi

1 Pele was the Hawaiian goddess of fire. She dressed up like an old woman and went on a secret mission. She used a branch as a cane. She traveled deep into Hawaii and saw two houses. One was a huge house that showed a sign of wealth. The house had beautiful palms and banana plants. This gave it a pleasing look. Pele called from the door, "Aloha!"

"Aloha," a voice answered. It did not sound friendly. When no one came to welcome Pele she said, "I have walked a long way, and I am so hungry. Do you have a calabash of poi for me?" Surely, with such a fancy house this family could share some food with her.

"We have no poi," the chief said harshly. "And can't you see our evening meal is over?"

"Could you share a small piece of fish then?" Pele asked.

"No," the chief replied.

"At least some berries?" Pele asked.

The chief motioned to the land around the house. "Our berries are all green, as you can see if your old eyes will let you."

A Calabash of Poi

Pele was the Hawaiian goddess of fire. She dressed up like an old woman and went on a secret mission. She used a branch as a cane. She traveled deep into Hawaii and saw two houses. One was a huge house that showed a sign of wealth. The house had beautiful palms and banana plants. This gave it a pleasing look. Pele called from the door, "Aloha!"

"Aloha," a voice answered. It did not sound friendly.

When no one came to welcome Pele she said, "I have walked a long way, and I am so hungry. Do you have a calabash of poi for me?"

Surely, with such a fancy house this family could share some food

1. How are the characters in "A Calabash of Poi" and "Sedge Hats for Jizo" similar?

There is a Hawaiian god in both stories.

There are unkind people in both stories.

There are fishermen in both stories.

There are people in both stories who are generous and kind.

	PDF 	Google Slides 	Webscape™
Format Type	Printable	Digital	Digital
Device	N/A	Any Device	Any Device
Required Prep	Print & Go	Copy & Share	Zero Prep
Student Answers	Printable Answer Pamphlet	Google Sheets Decoder Tool	Integrated Challenge Hub
Self Correcting	Includes Answer Key	Self Correcting	Self Correcting
Custom Videos	QR Codes	Embedded You Tube	Embedded
Audio Readings	N/A	No Audio Readings	Contains Audio Readings
Navigation	N/A	Student Directed	Automatically Advancing
Extras	Early Finish Challenges	Movable Pieces	Interactive Animation

3 Versions

- Print
- Google Slides
- Webscape™ (Our most popular experience)

Learn more!

Print

- Cut and paste stamps for each challenge
- Easy to follow
- Optimal for group or partner work
- Recording brochure for answers
- Self-checking decoder
- Certificate of completion

Learn more!

I can't let Jack venture into Giant Land by himself! He's just a simple shepherd and won't make it back.
We may not succeed, but Jack's flock of sheep is counting on us. We're all they've got, and we will work together to bring them home! After each challenge, gather the straggling sheep from Jack's flock and return them to the village safely.

© 2014 P. Baker

Shepherd's Decoder

Use the following codes for each challenge to unlock the secret item and move to the next challenge.

Challenge 1

Question 1	Question 2	Question 3	Question 4	Question 5	Question 6
a = We b = On c = In d = I	a = of b = the c = saw d = where	a = near b = middle c = around d = it	a = of b = through c = over d = with	a = my b = it c = giant d = land	a = glasses b = binoculars c = map d = sheep

Challenge 2

Question 1	Question 2	Question 3	Question 4	Question 5	Question 6
a = Helped b = Found c = Led d = I	a = to b = led c = is d = him	a = into b = in c = under d = toward	a = huge b = stomping c = cave d = corner	a = bird b = flock c = giant d = sheep	a = feet b = hill c = water d = cave

Challenge 3

Question 1	Question 2	Question 3	Question 4	Question 5	Question 6
a = The b = Giants c = We d = I	a = had b = used c = followed d = found	a = behind b = a c = over d = with	a = the b = it c = a d = his	a = hungry b = giant c = map d = helping	a = map b = cane c = sheep d = wolf

Challenge 4

Question 1	Question 2	Question 3	Question 4	Question 5	Question 6
a = With b = ...	a = discovered b = ...	a = a b = ...	a = small b = ...	a = heavy b = ...	a = flock b = free c = boulder d = mountain

GIANT LAND COMPARE AND CONTRAST RECORDING BROCHURE

Record your challenge answers
along your journey.

CHALLENGE 3

	Answer	Code
1.	C	We
2.	C	Followed
3.	A	behind
4.
5.
6.

How did you spot the flock of sheep?

Print

- OOPS! Cards for differentiation

Learn more!

You Did It!

Jessica Davis

(Name)

Has successfully completed the challenges, trapped the giants, and helped bring my sheep home safely.

18/09

(Date)

Scan the QR code or click here to view the video.

Shepherd

Ooops!

You caught the attention of the giants.

YOU MUST STAY QUIET FOR 5 MINUTES. NO SPEAKING!

©2018 Bobo

Webscape TM

- Most interactive experience
- Self correcting
- Embedded videos
- Embedded audio
- Animation
- Simple navigation

Learn more!

Webescape™

- No log ins or sign ups
- Works with any device that has an internet connection and web browser
- Zero prep! Just share the link with your students.

Learn more!

Google Slides

- Three problems per slide
- Students drag to circle their answers

-
1. How are the characters in "A Calabash of Poi" and "Sedge Hats for Jizo" similar? ☐
- a. There is a Hawaiian god in both stories.
 - b. There are unkind people in both stories.
 - c. There are fishermen in both stories.
 - d. There are people in both stories who are generous and kind.
2. How are the settings in "A Calabash of Poi" and "Sedge Hats for Jizo" different? ☐
- a. One story takes place at sea. The other story takes place on land.
 - b. One story takes place on a mountainside. The other story takes place in a restaurant.
 - c. One story takes place in Hawaii. The other story takes place in Japan.
 - d. One story takes place a long time ago. The other story takes place last year.
3. How are the endings of "A Calabash of Poi" and "Sedge Hats for Jizo" similar? ☐
- a. The characters in both stories learn from their mistakes.
 - b. The characters in both stories lose everything they have.
 - c. The characters in both stories decide to never be generous or kind again.
 - d. The characters in both stories are rewarded for being generous and kind to others.

Learn more!

Google Slides

- Toggle to self-checking decoder
- Decoder will prompt at the end of each challenge whether students are correct or need to check their work.

Learn more!

Looking for More?

