Describe Story Elements

It was my first time flying by myself. I handed the flight attendant my ticket and found my seat on the plane. I could not wait to see my grandmother and visit the beautiful beaches in Florida. I looked out the window as the plane took off into the sky. "Thank you for joining us today. We will arrive in beautiful Alaska in just a few short hours," said the pilot over the speaker. I felt my head spinning and my head racing. This was not good. This was very, very bad. I had boarded the wrong plane.

What best describes how the narrator is feeling when he realizes he boarded the wrong plane?

BOOM CARDS

Describe Story Elements

My whole family stared at the TV screen and listened to the news anchor describe what was happening with the big storm. The weatherman predicted the storm would arrive at our house the next day and said it was time to start preparing. My dad took us to the grocery store. We bought lots and lots of water, canned food, and candles.

What best describes why the narrator and his dad go to the grocery store?

To buy an ice-cold drink and some candy to snack on. To get eggs for the cookies they were baking. To prepare for the storm by buying items they may need. To buy groceries for the week.
