

VIRTUAL CAREER DAY: Veterinarian

ALL KINDS OF VETS

Click on the links to read an article.
After learning about all different kinds of veterinarians, fill out the missing
information in the chart on the next slide.

Middle Grades

Interdisciplinary

WHAT IS A VETERINARIAN?

veterinarian noun

someone qualified to treat diseased or injured animals

veterinary medicine noun

a field of science that deals with the prevention, diagnosis, and treatment of diseases and injuries in non-human animals

Engaging & Educational Media

DAIRY VET CASE STUDY

If you are a person who drinks milk, eats yogurt, cheese, or ice cream, you rely on the work of a dairy vet! Watch the two videos to learn more about dairy veterinarians.

MEET: ALISON CORNELL

TALKING POINTS

Alison Cornell is a veterinarian.
Watch the video to hear Cornell discuss the various opportunities that veterinary care has to offer.

What is Alison Cornell's biggest piece of advice to those becoming veterinarians? Why?

Integrates Reading

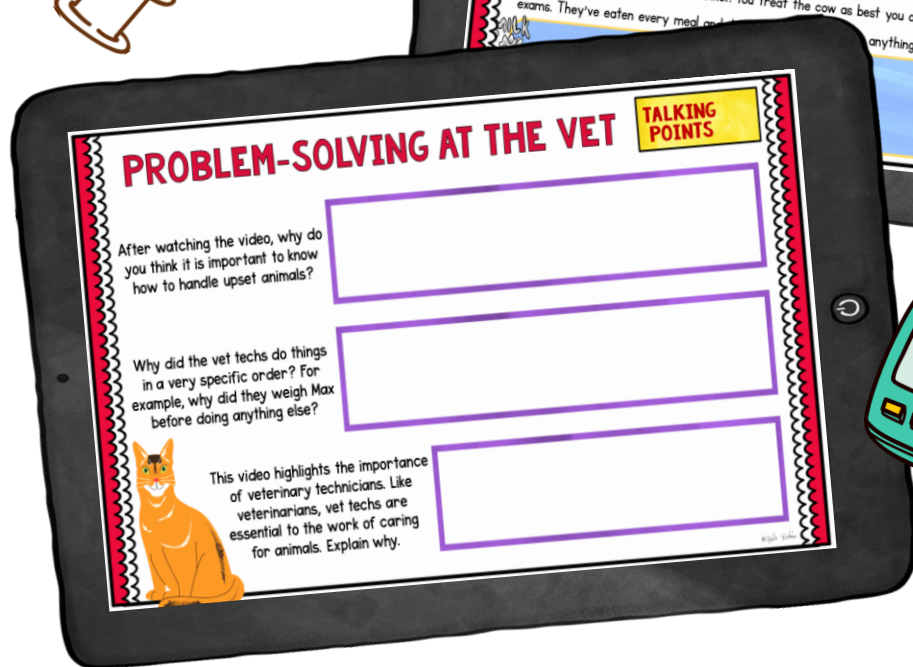

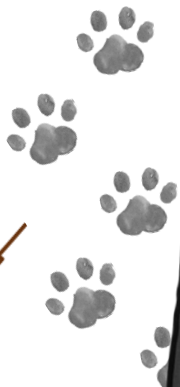

ALL KINDS OF VETS

Click on the photo to read an article.

After learning about all different kinds
of veterinarians, fill out the missing
information in the chart on the next slide.

Critical Thinking

Writing Exercise

RETIRED VET ADVENTURES

TALKING POINTS

How does Parkes spend time helping pets gain mobility? Why does he do it?

Imagine that you are a retired vet who still wants to help animals. What would you do?
What animals would you most like to help?

Interactive Movable Pieces

