3. Characters

Mateo did not like bowling. He was at his best friend's birthday party. Mateo was trying to have fun. He looked at the other kids at the party. Mateo smiled. He felt scared. He did not want to mess up. Mateo turned back around. He took a deep breath. Mateo lifted the bowling ball. He pulled his arm back. He swung his arm. Then Mateo let go of the ball. Everyone watched. The ball flew over three lanes! It crashed. Everyone started to laugh. Mateo was shocked. Then he started to laugh too. At least he tried!

5. What character trait best describes Mateo?

6. What is the setting of this story?
   a. a school

3. Characters

🔊 Mateo didn't like bowling – not even a little bit. This was his best friend's birthday party, though, and he had decided to try. He looked back at all his classmates watching. Mateo smiled nervously and turned back around. He took a deep breath and lifted his arm back. Swinging forward with power, he let go of the ball. Everyone watched as the ball flew three lanes over and crashed into a gutter. The whole class started laughing loudly. After a second of shock, Mateo started laughing too. He'd rather laugh along with his class than feel embarrassed! And after all, he did try!

🔊 What character trait best describes Mateo?

| brave | kind | curious | athletic |
