

HISPANIC HERITAGE MONTH

Heroes of Hispanic Heritage

Heroes of Hispanic Heritage

Name: _____
Frida

Frida Ka.
Mexican artist,
unique and power
She was born on
Coyoacán, Mexico

becoming a doctor, but her life changed when she terrible bus accident at the age of eighteen. The c her with serious injuries, so she had to spend a lot recovering. During this time, Frida began to paint to feelings and cope with her pain.

Fr...ings are famous for their bright col strong em...ns in her life herself in...

Frida Kahlo

Name: _____ Date: _____
Salvador Dali

Salvador Dali... artist
and si made
He was Dali showed a e he develop

Name: _____ Date: _____
César Chávez

César Chávez was a
Mexican-American labor leader
and civil rights activist. He spent his life improving the working conditions of farm workers in the United States. Chávez was grew up in a farm workers
- living

1. Who was César Chávez?
 RED

2. Where was César from?
 ORANGE

3. Why was César passionate about his cause?
 YELLOW

Name: _____ Date: _____
Roberto Clemente

Roberto Clemente was a baseball player and humanitarian. He made a lasting impact on and off the field. He was born on August 18, 1934,
in Carolina, Puerto Rico. From baseball. He dreamed ne true. In 1953
e of the first L

1. Who was Roberto
Clemente?
 RED

Name: _____ Date: _____
Selena Quintanilla

Selena Quintanilla was talented singer and perform known as the "Queen
April 16,

1. Who was Selena Quintanilla?
 RED

15 Hispanic Hero Biography Passages

Heroes of Hispanic Heritage

Frida Kahlo

Frida Kahlo was a famous Mexican artist known for her unique and powerful paintings. She was born on July 6, 1907, in Coyoacán, Mexico. When Frida was a child, she dreamed of becoming a doctor, but her life changed when she was in a terrible bus accident at the age of eighteen. The accident left her with serious injuries, so she had to spend a lot of time in bed recovering. During this time, Frida began to paint to express her feelings and cope with her pain.

Frida's paintings are famous for their bright colors and strong emotions. She often painted self-portraits, showing herself in ways that reflected how she felt inside. Her artwork often included symbols of her Mexican heritage, such as monkeys, flowers, and traditional clothing. Frida's paintings also showed the physical and emotional pain she experienced throughout her life, making her work deeply personal and powerful.

Frida Kahlo's art gained recognition during her lifetime, but it became even more famous after her death in 1954. Today, Frida is celebrated not only as a talented artist but also as a symbol of strength and resilience. She is admired for her ability to turn her pain into beautiful and meaningful art that continues to inspire people around the world.

1. Who was Frida Kahlo?

Frida Kahlo was a famous Mexican artist known for her unique and powerful paintings.

2. Where was Frida from?

Coyoacán, Mexico

3. Describe Frida's art.

4. Why is Frida important today?

Frida Kahlo

Frida Kahlo was a famous Mexican artist known for her unique and powerful paintings. She was born on July 6, 1907, in Coyoacán, Mexico. When Frida was a child, she dreamed of becoming a doctor, but her life changed when she was in a terrible bus accident at the age of eighteen. The accident left her with serious injuries, so she had to spend a lot of time in bed recovering. During this time, Frida began to paint to express her feelings and cope with her pain.

Frida's paintings are famous for their bright colors and strong emotions. She often painted self-portraits, showing herself in ways that reflected how she felt inside. Her artwork often included symbols of her Mexican heritage, such as monkeys, flowers, and traditional clothing. Frida's paintings also showed the physical and emotional pain she experienced throughout her life, making her work deeply personal and powerful.

Frida Kahlo's art gained recognition during her lifetime, but it became even more famous after her death in 1954. Today, Frida is celebrated not only as a talented artist but also as a symbol of strength and resilience. She is admired for her ability to turn her pain into beautiful and meaningful art that continues to inspire people around the world.

1. Who was Frida Kahlo?

Frida Kahlo was a famous Mexican artist known for her unique and powerful paintings.

2. Where was Frida from?

Coyoacán, Mexico

3. Describe Frida's art.

4. Why is Frida important today?

Salvador Dalí

Salvador Dalí was a famous Spanish artist. Dalí was known for his imaginative and sometimes bizarre paintings that made people see the world in new ways. He was born on May 11, 1904, in Figueras, Spain. From a young age, Dalí showed a talent for drawing. He went on to study art in Madrid, where he developed his unique style.

Dalí is best known for his role in the Surrealist movement, a style of art that explores dreams, the subconscious, and the strange everyday objects. His most famous painting, The melting clocks draped over a landscape, is a melting clocks draped over a landscape, showing the idea that time is fluid.

1. Who was Salvador Dalí?

2. Where was Salvador Dalí from?

3. How was Salvador Dalí unique?

César Chávez

César Chávez was a Mexican-American labor leader and civil rights activist. He spent his life improving the working conditions of farm workers in the United States. Chávez was born in Arizona. Chávez grew up in a family of hardworking farm workers, long hours, and poor living conditions.

National Farm Workers United Farm Workers. Chávez was inspired by Mahatma Gandhi and organized strikes, marches, and nonviolent protest. He fought for better wages and working conditions for farm workers.

In 1965, farm workers in California called for a boycott that lasted for five years. Chávez's leadership was a key factor in the success of the strike. He is remembered for his dedication to justice, dignity, and inspiring people to stand up for their rights.

1. Who was César Chávez?

2. Where was César from?

3. Why was César passionate about his cause?

4. Why is César remembered today?

Selena Quintanilla

Selena Quintanilla was a famous singer and performer. She was known as the "Queen of Tejano" music. Selena was born on April 16, 1971, in Houston, Texas. She began singing at a young age with her family. Selena had a strong voice and a unique style that blended Mexican and American styles.

Selena's music was popular with a wide audience. She released her first album, Ven, when she was 18. By the time she was 23, she had released her second album, Como la Flor, which went Gold. It sold over a million copies.

She won awards. She was named Latin American Album for Best New Artist. She created a new sound that inspired many other artists.

1. Who was Selena Quintanilla?

2. Where was Selena Quintanilla from?

3. How did Selena Quintanilla influence music?

4. Why is Selena Quintanilla important?

Passages are Differentiated on 2 Levels

🌸 2nd-3rd Text Complexity

🌸 4th-5th Text Complexity

Heroes of Hispanic Heritage

Name: _____ Date: _____

Roberto Clemente

Roberto Clemente was a baseball player and humanitarian. He made a lasting impact on and off the field. He was born on August 18, 1934, in Carolina, Puerto Rico. From a young age, Clemente loved baseball. His dream came true. In 1955, Clemente joined the Pittsburgh Pirates. He was one of the first Latino players in Major League Baseball.

Clemente was known for his powerful hitting, strong arm, and fielding skills. He was the first Latino player to reach 3,000 hits in his career. Clemente also won 12 Gold Glove Awards. He was named an All-Star 15 times, and helped the Pittsburgh Pirates win two World Series championships, in 1960 and 1971.

Clemente was proud of his Puerto Rican heritage. He worked to help others. Clemente gave back to his community. He used his fame to support charities. Clemente was known for his kindness.

In 1972, Clemente died in a plane crash. He was on his way to help earthquake victims in Nicaragua. Clemente was a hero who cared about making the world a better place.

Roberto Clemente's legacy inspires people. Each year, MLB honors his memory with the Roberto Clemente Award. This award is given to a player who shows the same spirit and a commitment to community that Clemente had. It's about using talent to help others.

1. Who was Roberto Clemente? (100%)

2. Where was Roberto Clemente from? (100%)

3. How did Roberto Clemente stay true to his heritage? (100%)

4. Why is Roberto Clemente remembered today? (100%)

Name: _____ Date: _____

Roberto Clemente

Roberto Clemente was an incredible baseball player, and a generous humanitarian who made a lasting impact both on and off the field. He was born on August 18, 1934, in Carolina, Puerto Rico. From a young age, Clemente loved baseball and dreamed of playing in the major leagues. He was one of the first Latino players in Major League Baseball.

Clemente quickly became known for his powerful hitting, strong arm, and incredible fielding skills. He was the first Latino player to reach 3,000 hits in his career. Clemente won 12 Gold Glove Awards, and was named an All-Star 15 times, and helped the Pittsburgh Pirates win two World Series championships, in 1960 and 1971.

Clemente was proud of his Puerto Rican heritage. He worked to help others. Clemente gave back to his community. He used his fame to support charities. Clemente was known for his kindness.

In 1972, Clemente died in a plane crash. He was on his way to help earthquake victims in Nicaragua. Clemente was a hero who cared about making the world a better place.

Roberto Clemente's legacy inspires people. Each year, MLB honors his memory with the Roberto Clemente Award. This award is given to a player who shows the same spirit and a commitment to community that Clemente had. It's about using talent to help others.

1. Who was Roberto Clemente? (100%)

2. Where was Roberto Clemente from? (100%)

3. How did Roberto Clemente stay true to his heritage? (100%)

4. Why is Roberto Clemente remembered today? (100%)

Name: _____ Date: _____

Sonia Sotomayor

Sonia Sotomayor is an important figure in American history. She was the first Latina to serve on the United States Supreme Court. Sotomayor was born on June 25, 1954, in New York City. Her parents were from Puerto Rico. Growing up in a low-income neighborhood, Sonia faced many challenges, including the early loss of her father. Despite these difficulties, her mother encouraged her to focus on education as a path to a better life.

Sonia worked hard in school. She earned a scholarship to Princeton University, where she graduated with honors. She then attended Yale Law School, one of the country's top law schools. After finishing law school, Sonia began her law career and later became a judge. Her hard work and dedication to justice caught the attention of leaders in Washington, D.C.

In 2009, President Barack Obama nominated Sonia Sotomayor to the Supreme Court, the highest court in the United States. She was sworn in as a Supreme Court Justice. Sonia Sotomayor plays an important role in deciding important cases for the country. She is known for defending the rights of minorities and the poor.

Sonia Sotomayor's story is inspiring. She has become a role model for many people. Sonia Sotomayor shows us that with hard work it is possible to make an impact on society. Her influence extends beyond the courtroom. She inspires young people to pursue their goals and stand up for what is right.

1. Who is Sonia Sotomayor? (100%)

2. Where is Sonia Sotomayor from? (100%)

3. Pick a character trait that describes Sonia. Give an example from the text that supports your answer. (100%)

4. Why is Sonia Sotomayor important? (100%)

Name: _____ Date: _____

Sonia Sotomayor

Sonia Sotomayor is an important figure in American history. She was the first Latina to serve on the United States Supreme Court. Sotomayor was born on June 25, 1954, in New York City. Her parents were from Puerto Rico. Growing up in a low-income neighborhood, Sonia faced many challenges, including the early loss of her father. Despite these difficulties, her mother encouraged her to focus on education as a path to a better life.

Sonia worked hard in school. She earned a scholarship to Princeton University, where she graduated with honors. She then attended Yale Law School, one of the country's top law schools. After finishing law school, Sonia began her law career and later became a judge. Her hard work and dedication to justice caught the attention of leaders in Washington, D.C.

In 2009, President Barack Obama nominated Sonia Sotomayor to the Supreme Court, the highest court in the United States. She was sworn in as a Supreme Court Justice. Sonia Sotomayor plays an important role in deciding important cases for the country. She is known for defending the rights of minorities and the poor.

Sonia Sotomayor's story is inspiring. She has become a role model for many people. Sonia Sotomayor shows us that with hard work it is possible to make an impact on society. Her influence extends beyond the courtroom. She inspires young people to pursue their goals and stand up for what is right.

1. Who is Sonia Sotomayor? (100%)

2. Where is Sonia Sotomayor from? (100%)

3. Pick a character trait that describes Sonia. Give an example from the text that supports your answer. (100%)

4. Why is Sonia Sotomayor important? (100%)

Wide Range of Biographies

From activists, to sports to artists, to entertainers

Passages & Questions are Short 1 Pagers

Designed to take only 15 minutes each day.

Heroes of Hispanic Heritage

Frida Kahlo

Frida Kahlo was a famous Mexican artist known for her unique and powerful paintings. She was born on July 6, 1907, in Coyoacán, Mexico. When Frida was a child, she dreamed of becoming a doctor, but her life changed when she was in a terrible bus accident at the age of eighteen. The accident left her with serious injuries, so she had to spend a lot of time in bed recovering. During this time, Frida began to paint to express her feelings and cope with her pain.

Frida's paintings are famous for their bright colors and strong emotions. She often painted self-portraits, showing herself in ways that reflected how she felt inside. Her artwork often included symbols of her Mexican heritage, such as monkeys, flowers, and traditional clothing. Frida's paintings also showed the physical and emotional pain she experienced throughout her life, making her work deeply personal and powerful.

Frida Kahlo's art gained recognition during her lifetime, but it became even more famous after her death in 1954. Today, Frida is celebrated not only as a talented artist but also as a symbol of strength and resilience. She is admired for her ability to turn her pain into beautiful and meaningful art that continues to inspire people around the world.

1. Who was Frida Kahlo?

Frida Kahlo was a famous Mexican artist known for her unique and powerful paintings.

2. Where was Frida from?

Coyoacan, Mexico

3. Describe Frida's art.

4. Why is Frida important today?

Selena Quintanilla

Selena Quintanilla was a talented singer and performer. She was known as the "Queen of Tejano" and was born on April 16, 1971, in Houston, Texas. From a young age with her strong voice, she connected with audiences.

Selena's music blended Mexican and American styles. She released her first album, Como la Flor, when she was 18 years old. By the time she released her second album, Ven, she was a superstar. Ven went Gold. It sold over 1 million copies.

She won awards. She was named Latin American Album for Best New Artist. She created a new sound.

At twenty-three, Selena released her third album, Live Through This. It was her last. She died on March 31, 1995. Her music continues to inspire new fans.

Selena's music and positive message broke down barriers for artists. She opened doors for future Latin artists through her music.

Selena Quintanilla

1. Who was Selena Quintanilla?

2. Where was Selena Quintanilla from?

3. How did Selena Quintanilla influence music?

4. Why is Selena Quintanilla important?

Salvador Dalí

Salvador Dalí was a famous Spanish artist. Dalí was known for his imaginative and sometimes bizarre paintings that made people see the world in new ways. He was born on May 11, 1904, in Figueras, Spain. From a young age, Dalí showed a talent for drawing. He went on to study art in Madrid, where he developed his unique style.

Dalí is best known for his role in the Surrealist movement, a style of art that explores dreams, the subconscious, and the strange. He painted everyday objects. His most famous painting, The Persistence of Memory, shows melting clocks draped over a landscape, illustrating the idea that time is fluid.

César Chávez

César Chávez was a Mexican-American labor leader and civil rights activist. He spent his life improving the working conditions of farm workers in the United States. Chávez grew up in a family of hardworking farm workers, facing long hours, and poor living conditions.

Chávez led the National Farm Workers United Farm Workers. Inspired by Mahatma Gandhi and organized strikes, marches, and boycotts. He fought for better treatment for farm workers.

In 1965, farm workers in California went on strike. Chávez called for a boycott that lasted for five years. It was a victory for farm workers.

Attention to the struggles of farm workers. He is remembered for his justice, dignity, and ability to inspire people to stand up for their rights.

On April 23, 1993, his impact is celebrated as his birthday. His impact is celebrated as his birthday.

1. Who was César Chávez?

2. Where was César from?

3. Why was César passionate about his cause?

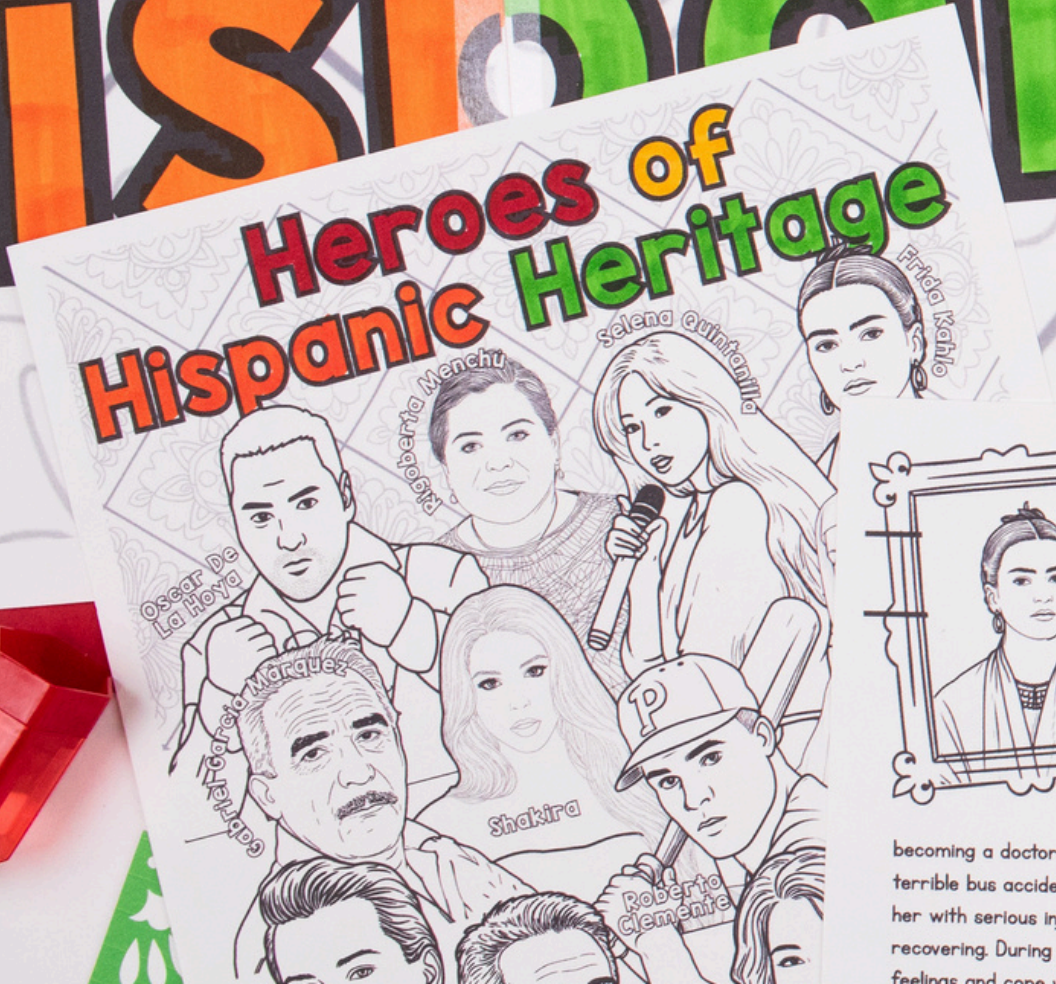

4. Why is César remembered today?

Collaborative Poster

Inspire Your Students with Stories

Heroes of Hispanic Heritage

Name: _____
Frida
Frida Ka
Mexican artist
unique and powe
She was born on
Coyoacán, Mexico
was a child, she dr

becoming a doctor, but her life changed when she terrible bus accident at the age of eighteen. The c
her with serious injuries, so she had to spend a lot recovering. During this time, Frida began to paint to feelings and cope with her pain.

Frida Kahlo

Name: _____ Date: _____
Salvador Dali
Salvador Dali... artist and si
made
He was Dali showed a
he developed
-le in th
Name: _____ Date: _____
César Chávez
César Chávez was a
Mexican-American labor leader
and civil rights activist. He spent his life improving the working conditions of farm workers in the United States. Chávez was born in Yuma, Arizona, and grew up in a farm workers' living
Name: _____ Date: _____
1. Who was César Chávez?
2. Where was César from?
3. Why was César passionate
about his cause?

Name: _____ Date: _____
Roberto Clemente
Roberto Clemente was a
baseball player and humanitarian. He made a lasting impact on and off the field. He was born on August 18, 1934,
in Carolina, Puerto Rico. From baseball. He dreamed ne true. In 1953
s of the first L
Name: _____ Date: _____
1. Who was Roberto
Clemente?
2. Why was Roberto passionate
about his cause?

Name: _____ Date: _____
Selena Quintanilla
Selena Quintanilla was a Mexican-American singer and dancer. She was born on April 16, 1971, in Dallas, Texas. She was the youngest daughter of a music family.
Name: _____ Date: _____
1. Who was Selena Quintanilla?
2. Why was Selena passionate about her music?

